Ghoti Hook, Seasons

It was a soft summer night when you came into my life I thought it was a dream when your hand reached out for me there was something there that I couldn't compare and I knew that you were the only one for me seasons change

It was a cool autumn's eve when you sensed that I was leaving a tear came to your eye but I just let it run dry you said don't go away but I just left you anyway I wasn't sure if you were the one for me seasons change

It was a cold winter's morning I had been up all night crying I knew I'd done you wrong, I'd been astray for oh so long I'm on my knees in pain I wish things had stayed the same and I just hope that you will take me back seasons change

It was a warm spring's night when you let me back inside I thought it was a dream but you still cared for me your love filled my heart nothing could tear us apart and I knew that you were the only one for me seasons change
