

Ghoti Hook, South Capitol Street

&quot;if i understood back then what is so easy to see now i could have stopped myself from falling far behind the changes i want will only come if i can turn things down so i search my heart where i know he lies but then i turn around

chorus:

i should have walked away

(some &quot;whoa&quot;ing) with each passing day i feel the way i did the day before and the things that haunt me stay the same i wont let them go i pray and ask for help but then walk down that cursed road where one waits with what i crave and my lusting hunger grows

sometimes i must give up things that i want so bad but it's these things in the end that i wished i'd never had
