

Giles, Giles And Fripp, Under The Sky

Smile at the smiling man
Tear in your eye
Dance in the morning sun
Under the sky.

High in the hawthorne tree
Bee and butterfly
Seek fortune in the leaves
Under the sky.

Follow the road that winds up to the sky,
There's no reason do not wonder why.

Dappled green summer glades
Where swallows fly
And laughing children play
Under the sky.

Smile at the smiling man
Tear in your eye
Love in the morning sun
Under the sky.

Follow the road that winds up to the sky,
There's no reason do not wonder why.

Soft on a mossy bank
Silently lie
Everything's everything
Under the sky.

Everything's everything under the sky...
