&lt;lyrics&gt;

Every night as we stood by our tree

I would touch you, and you would touch me

Oh, oh, The sun is rising

You're paralysing

Get down! Your mother was right!

You did destroy me every night.

You're just foolin'. Your mother was right!

Skin touching, I was tight as a nut

I was bursting, when you told me to stop

Get down! Your mother was right!

You destroyed me every night.

You're just foolin'. Your mother was right!

I can't take it, you ruin my life

The secrets you promised I could see and we could share

A gesture that glisten on your skin and I would dare

To offer to you my love, my love

I remember as we stood by our tree

I would touch you deliciously

Oh, oh, we never made it

Get down! Your mother was right!

You destroyed me every night.

You're just foolin'. Your mother was right!

I can't take it, you ruin my life

Get down! Your mother was right!

You did destroy me every night.

You're just foolin'. Your mother was right!

I can't take it, you ruin my life
