

Gin Blossoms, Heart-Shaped Locket

She's got all the moves
She's got nothing to prove

She's so cold so smooth
Her needle fits the groove

She's everything she forgot to be at twenty-three
She's hot, she's cold, she's just so clinically, cynically

Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Sole survivor of a post-teen scene

Lights me up like a bottle-rocket
Cleopatra meets Sandra Dee
That girl's gonna ruin me

A plaid pleated skirt
And a Carpenters tee shirt
Couture, demure
Not just another small-town flirt

She's everything she forgot to be at twenty-three
She's hot, she's cold, she's just so clinically, cynically

Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Sole survivor of a post-teen scene

Lights me up like a bottle-rocket
Cleopatra meets Sandra Dee
That girl's gonna ruin me

Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?

Ahh...

Who's the girl with a heart shaped locket?
Sole survivor of a post-teen scene

Lights me up like a bottle-rocket
Cleopatra meets Sandra Dee
Yeah the girl's gonna ruin me
