

Gin Blossoms, Learning The Hard Way

Summer came too early
Springtime came too late
Weather went from freezing
To bleached out summer days

Holed up in your bedroom
Hiding like two thieves
Counting up the hours
For the perfect time to leave

Woo, hoo
Were learning the hard way
Woo, hoo
It just dont matter what they say

Nighttime through this desert
Driving straight out west
Stop for gas and coffee
Close your eyes for rest

I wonder what youre dreaming
While were halfway cross this bridge
Weve come too far to turn back
Were just too close to quit

Woo, hoo
Were learning the hard way
Woo, hoo
It just dont matter what they say
Woo, hoo
Were learning the hard way
Woo, hoo
Woo, hoo

Holed up in your bedroom
Hiding like two thieves
Counting up the hours
For the perfect time to leave

Woo, hoo
Were learning the hard way
Woo, hoo
It just dont matter what they say
Woo, hoo
Were learning the hard way
Woo, hoo
Woo, hoo

Woo, hoo
Woo, hoo
Woo, hoo
Na, na, na, na
Woo, hoo
Na, na, na, na
Who, hoo
