

Ginuwine, Big Plans

(feat. Method Man)

Baby I got big plans
A big ring a small hand
A big cake bridesmaid best man
One day we gon have all of that
Baby I got big plans
A big ring a small hand
A big cake bridesmaid best man
One day we gon have all of that

Girl I know we just met tonight
And this may seem like a line
But I'm not the playa type
Normally you wouldn't find me
Under the club light
In search of a love life
But you shaking that stuff right
I think I should make you my wife

[Chorus]

You probably think I'm trying to crush tonight
Cause I gotta look of lust with crush in my eye
No matter what i say keep it tight
Keep it away from me like Superman and kryptonite
You see I'm not thinking short term
I've learned
Giving everybody turns comes out like a bad perm
You got the wanna beg to earn
Oh beaby yeah

[Chorus]

I know this sounds crazy boo
I ain't even known you two Things that I'm opened to
The way that I propose to you
Must think I'm some kind of fool
You can call it with your finger but I'm thinking we gon jump back

[Method Man]

Back seat of my jeep lets swing an episode
Her neck and wrist all froze I'm tryin to catch a cold
Clip in the tray
We sippin away on that zayg on the mission
Slowly slippin away
Aint't life funny
Don't nothin move but that money
Oh boy honies looking like playboy bunnies
The Whole swagger
That be the type that I go after
They get more attention cause their a**es more fatter
And every dog gotta have her
But I ain't trying to make her un-comfy
Or cramp her style like I'm ugly
How many women want a man
With big plans big feet and big hands
Ya understand why the daddy wears the big pans
I'm big boned
And if this symbolizes my life I live long
My funny valentine would you be mine
50 gran on the wedding band tell her G wine

[Chorus]
