

Girls Aloud, Miss You Bow Wow

Everybody love love loves
Everybody, everybody love love loves
Everybody, everybody love love loves
Everybody loves a lover

Everybody love love loves
Everybody, everybody love love loves
Everybody, everybody love love loves
Everybody loves a lover

All I do do do, when my demons hit
I dial 9-9-9, saying get a doctor
I'm so damn tired of your shadow breaking my heart in two, oh baby
At night, when my demons hit
I dial 9-9-9, say I need a doctor
I'm so damn tired of your shadow making my heart and soul go crazy

I miss you now, now, now
You're looking bow wow, wow
I'm slipping down, down, down
I miss you now, now, now

I miss you now, now, now
You're looking bow wow, wow
I'm slipping down, down, down
I miss you now, now, now

I remember living that dream,
Twenty minutes in a hotel bar,
Then I slipped into your girlfriend's jeans.
And I remember, said baby hold tight,
Twenty hours in the twilight zone,
The only lovers in the world that night.
Oh I...

You're talking like you're gonna do the stupid thing
Everybody wants to see you do that thing
We're jumping in together when the bottle spins
They wanna see it stop and let the fun begin
