

Girls in Hawaii, Short Song For A Short Mind

You want to go
Where you never went before
You want me to to bring you
To something new
This smile is all I have to offer you
Maybe I'm just dumb

I think I have a problem with myself
I' m sure you'll be fine with someone else
A beer is all I have to offer you
Am I drinking to much ?

Don't have anything to do with you
You won't have good things to do with you
We fell to that art to be afraid with you
Do you want the sun ?

Hahaha
