

Give Up The Ghost, The Ice Age Is Coming

A cold world is one where you think hope's alive.

Where "friends" aren't really "friends", where love CAN'T survive.

A cold world is one where life takes your life, where day after day is a fight after fight.

This-World-Has-Made-Me-Cold, but I know, you've got to break your back to hold your ground, and bones will heal, so I'm standing strong.

IT HURTS.

IT BREAKS.

IT KILLS.

IT TAKES.

WE'LL FIGHT.

WE'LL WIN.

WE WON'T GIVE IN.
