

Glasseater, Five Star Parade

bring them in line them up to see what we have bought to see who will dare to move to step out of line as they follow blindly and join the 5 star parade move along follow blindly
as we dictate your every step you dont question so we just feed you
three strikes you're out you're no more use to us why?
why dont you question these lies?
