

Glassjaw, I'm Caught (old)

As i watched it all begin...

I'm caught

In the Middle

Of my own reality.

Where nothing's for and nothing's against,

Why don't you wake-up and you'll see the lies and the pain and the oppression.

I could never understand,

All that is good,

And all that's supposed to be.

And escape from my anxiety.

I can't escape.

I'm caught

In the Middle

Of my own reality.

I could never understand,

All that is good,

And all that's supposed to be.

And I, I could not not escape the lies.

My reality.

Oh my God,

They held me down.

I can't escape.

I'm caught

In the Middle

Of my own reality.
