Glen Campbell, As Far As I'm Concerned

(Dale Parker)

As far as I'm concerned I don't believe the words They say about you as far as I'm concerned I think it's time they learn that nothing I have heard Could make me doubt you as far as I'm concerned.

As far as I'm concerned I'd rather be unhappy dear with you Than to look for happiness with someone new For always in my heart there'll be a flame that burns For you alone dear as far as I'm concerned.

As far as I'm concerned I'd rather be unhappy dear with you Than to look for happiness with someone new For always in my heart there'll be a flame that burns For you alone dear as far as I'm concerned...
