

Glenn Kaiser Band, In The Soul Of A Man

In the soul of a man, there ain't much room to hide
Until he reads his conscience, he cannot rest inside

I was born to know temptation, born to know the blues
I was born to face frustration,
I was born to know the blues
But I have overcome, cuz I know
Who paid my dues
He paid my dues

In the soul of a man is a place only love can fill
In the soul of a woman, a need only love can fill
But I finally found salvation in the One no one can kill
