

Glenn Kaiser Band, Thief

Like a shot in the dark, like a smokin' gun
When you least expect, that's when He's gonna come No angel of light, no man from the east gonna stand Him up when time has ceased

God Almighty, nobody gonna sleep
When the stars fall down, He'll be comin' like a thief

When they talk of peace and there just ain't none
When the sand runs out though knowledge increase In the blink of an eye, like a lightnin' strike
From the east to the west like a thief in the night

Lord, Lord, they gonna wail an' weep Aw, when the clouds roll back
He'll be comin' like a thief, comin' like a thief

Two in the field, one won't go Two in bed, one left lyin' cold
Two in the factory, one punchin' out
With the blast of a horn, with a mighty shout

Gonna reap, just like a field of wheat Oh, ya better watch an' pray
He'll be comin' like a thief, comin' like a thief
