Glenn Kaiser Band, Unfinished Business

Nobody lives forever in the twinkling of an eye We think we're here forever I sure don't know why But don't it seem to you we still got lots to do Things get piled so high till they cover up the sky Can I get a witness?

The saddest thing of all the thing that ya should have done The baddest way to fall is to stumble as you run You hear His voice so clear Ya know just what to do No love is quite so dear as one that's tried and true Can I get a witness? Got unfinished business . . .

If you love you will obey
If you live just what you say
Trust in His forgiveness
You don't need to leave no unfinished business
