

Glenn Kaiser, Deliver

Talk talk talk is cheap
Where's the action
A church so fast asleep
Got no attraction
A band lookin' oh so good
With nothin' but sound
Ain't givin' much to this world
Just spinnin' down

Time will tell
When the book is opened wide

Did ya' deliver?
What did you deliver?
Who did you deliver?
Or did ya' keep it inside...

Time is runnin' down
Excuses don't accomplish somethin'
Some might see your truth
Others don't see nothin'
But when the blind lead the blind
Accidents are sure to happen
There is a world goin' to hell
And a lotta critics' jaws just flappin'
You say they just weren't elected too
I say deliver the truth
Or God says their blood's on you

Did ya' deliver?
What did you deliver?
Who did you deliver?
Or did ya' keep it inside...
