

Glenn Kaiser, Light Of Dawn

Light of dawn reflecting love eternal
Light of morning open eyes now closed
Light of day in grace reach to our yearning
Light of lights come guide us to the day

Radiant light with timeless truth revealing
Brilliant light illuminate my path
Holy light reveal the shadows fleeing
Glorious light of heaven I give thanks

In this light, in this day
Light of Dawn

Son of God my love my hope eternal
Morning Star You've opened eyes once closed
Daystar giving grace to meet our yearning
Lord of light come guide us to the day

In this light, in this day
Will of God, be mine!
Light of Dawn

In Your love, on and on
Will of God, be mine!
Light of Dawn
