

Glenn Kaiser, More And More

I pledge my love to You more and more
I give my life to You every day
I pledge my soul to You, use me more and more
Take me where You will, only have Your way

Yes I know, You gave Your love to me
All You had, gave Your life for me
And I'm sure

Your thoughts are toward me, Lord,
I understand more and more
Your eyes looking out for me, and I know what for
For eternity, You and me I am sure
Break this heart of stone, don't wanna walk alone

The pain in my heart that You reached right through
The chain on my heart that You broke in two
Now I'm sure love's the cure

I pledge my love to You more and more
I give my life to You every day
