

Glenn Kaiser, Spontaneous Combustion

Spontaneous combustion
Lord, you set my heart aflame
Salted in the fire
Lord you set my heart aflame
Burnin' sacrifices
Yeah - where every loss is gain

Spontaneous combustion
Like a house of livin stones
No wood or hay or stubble
Just the pure before your throne
A love that never quits
Yes where heaven is my home

Spontaneous combustion
Spirit shakin' me inside
A holy band of angels
Campin' round on every side
Comin' for a wedding
For a true and spotless bride
