Glenn Kaiser, Tapestry

As ocean waves are to the shore As gentle rains to the sea As starlight on the waters So you are to me We shall scale the mountains Conquer the valleys too Come wind, come rain, come Jesus His love will see us through Master Weaver, use us well Two lives You weave as one Oh, make of us a tapestry In which Your beauty runs In which Your beauty runs Today you rose to greet me As the daylight awoke the dawn Our love is just beginning But shall go on and on
