

Glenn Lewis, Fall Again

feels like fire , burns in my heart every single moment that we spend apart
I need you around, for everyday to start I haven't left you alone something about you ,staring in my eyes everything looking for I seem to find all this time away is killing me inside
I need your love in my life

Oh I wanna spend time till it ends
I wanna fall in you again
like we did, when we first met I wanna fall with you again

Ohhhhh

we faught in a battle , nobody won now we face a mountain, to be overcome you can't turn away, the past is said and done I need us to carry on

Oh i wanna spend time till it ends
like we did, when we first met
I wanna fall with you again
yeahhh la la la la whoaa

you try everything you never thought would work before when you live when you love when you give when you run you can always give up some more baby nothing means anything unless you're here to share with me I can breathe I can live I can die in my sleep cause you're always there in my dreams

Oh I wanna spend time till it ends
like we did, when we first met
I wanna fall with you again

I wanna fall with you again
