

Glenn Miller, This Changing World

WE'RE THAT COUPLE IN THE CASTLE

Glenn Miller

We're at Nineteen Moonbeam Terrace,

Overlooking Starlight Square,

We're the couple in the castle

Way up high in the air!

On the corner there's a cloud bank, and we bank our millions there

We're the couple in the castle in the air.

One day a daydream came a stealing

Through the gloomy part of town.

Well, that daydream brought us way up here

And we'll never come down

Call us Lord and Lady Stardust,

Call us crazy, we don't care,

We're the couple in the castle in the air
