

Glitter Kicks, Invisible

What do you want from me
All your gonna get it this blank stare
What do you want from me
You'd better ask someone else cause I don't care
You know I just don't care
If I could get away from here
just disappear
Now I'm invisible
What do you hope to see
To cold out my soul just won't go bare
What do you want me to be
You better tell someone else
Because I don't care
You know I still don't care
If I could get away from here
I'd be invisible
You make me want to
just disappear
Now I'm invisible
You won't find my name on your list
I'm erased I've ceased to exist
I'm all gone
I've become invisible
You can't see me
I'm invisible
