

Gloria Estefan, I Got No Love

I got no love in me, guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
Don't live a lie, it's true
I got no love in me

It's a mystery
How I just couldn't see
You dogged me long enough
Left me dry but I'm though

I got no love in me
You ask who to blame
Well it's only you
You ask me who I trust
Well it's me that's who
Baby it's true
You hurt me so much
You're all I ever knew
I knew it when I looked
Into your eyes
I should have known then
I should have realized

Baby...did not amount to love
Just remember one thing
What goes around comes around
And what you did to me
One day I'll make you see baby

I got no love in me, guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
Don't live a lie, it's true
I got no love in me

Bet you couldn't tell
Bet you didn't know
You're the only man I really loved
Every single kiss every time we touched

Imagined what you missed
Imagine now baby how it's gonna be
What you gonna do when you don't have me
Watcha gonna do
When it's not real
And how's it gonna feel
Deep inside of me
I hope you find what makes you happy
Baby now that you're free
This is all that's left of me, baby

I got no love in me, guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you

I got no love
I got no love
I got no love
Deep inside of me
I really hope that you're happy

Baby now that you're free
I got no love
