

Gloria Estefan, I Know You Too Well

Baby it's nothing that you've said
But I know it's not just in my head
You're changing baby, and you don't Think I see
I feel you drifting away, a little bit
Further every day
Don't tell me baby, don't tell me it's Just me
I see it in the look that's on
Your face
Something is not the same inside,
You can't keep it from me, no
Matter how you try

'cause I know you too well,
For you to ever think
You could tell me you lie, yes I know
You too well
No one knows you like I do, and it's
So easy to tell
When you look away, there's
Something you're hiding
I know you too well:
Too well

Maybe the timing
Isn't right,
Maybe I see the end
In sight
Is it over baby, is it
Hurting you to stay
Maybe you don't know
What to do
Can't find a way to Break the news, think
It over baby,
It hurts me more this way
I'd rather have you tell me
To my face
Then tell me everything's
All right
What you don't wanna say, is
There in black and white

'cause I know you too well,
For you to ever think
You could tell me you lie, yes I know
You too well
No one knows you like I do, and it's
So easy to tell
I know you too well:
Too well

I'd rather have you tell me
To my face
All right

'cause I know you too well,

You could tell me you lie, yes I know
You too well
No one knows you like I do, and it's
So easy to tell
When you look away, there's
I know you too well:
Too well
