Gloria Estefan, Love On A Two Way Street

I found love on a two way street And lost it on a lonely highway Love on a two way street And Lost it on a lonely highway

True love will never die So I've been told, but now I must cry It is finally goodbye, I know

With music softly playing His lips will gently saying I love you

He held me in desperation I thought it was a revelation And then he walked out

How could I be so blind
To give up love the very first time
To be fooled is a hurting pain
To be loved and fooled
Is a crying shame
While I bear the blame
As he laughs my name

With music softly playing His lips will gently saying Honey, I love you He held me in desperation I thought it was a revelation And then he walked out

I found love on a two way street And lost it on a lonely highway Love on a two way street And lost it on a lonely highway
