

Gloriana, All The Things That Mean The Most

I made a living out of living off track
I looked for wrong turns and never looked back
And what I found means nothing now
There's nothing worse than wanting something more
Watching your future walking out that door
That's how I lived, that's what I did
But I'm . . .

Letting go and holding close
To all the things that mean the most
And it feels so good coming home
To all the things that mean the most
The Best thing I finally learned about me
Was finding faith in ways way beyond me
Way beyond me

But Im letting go and holding close
To all the things that mean the most
And It feels so good coming home
To all the things that mean the most
(mean the most) holding close
(mean the most) let go
(mean the most) don't go
I tell myself that I've come a long way
It gets me through some really dark days
And I regret I'm not there yet
But I'm . . .

Letting go and holding close
To all the things that mean the most
And it feels so good coming home
To all the things that mean the most Oh ya
(all the things that mean the most)
