

Gluecifer, Put Me On A Plate

Im a full three course tonight Im a tummy rollercoaster alright
Drowned in sauce, egg on top, all the sides with a big fat butter dollop
Im a full fuckin dinner to night, outta sight all right(ext)

Why dont you go right on and put me on a plate now Put me on a plate now
I am done and ready to eat
You can sit right down and dig into the good stuff so good that you can never get enough got me tickling from my head to my feet

Im like butter on the toast just right Like the gravy on the roast so right
Book yourself a table for a weekday lunch Call the maitre dee know you got that hunch
Peek into the kitchen you can hear what it says Bring a big napkin this is gonna be a big mess
