

Go:Audio, Brake! Brake!

Go, but the lights are red,
We waited on the starting line,
Can hear my heartbeat mouth so dry
and yeah, dont waste no time,
Strap yourself in dont be shy,
Tonight
The roads we dont know says to drive slow,
Were going too fast, were going too fast,
I couldnt stop if I wanted to try,
Now.
Brake, brake, brake,
But a moment just to late,
For gods sake,
This life I just cant waste.
As hearts race,
and the clock it stops in time,
Were going.
Down, Down, Down
and the shouting screams they drown
With no sound,
But the shattered glass so loud
I shout out,
'Cause I think were going under,
Under.
The sky turns red,
The silent screams ring in my head,
Again.
Burning fills the air around,
I dont think i'll be found.
Lying here.
The roads we dont know says to drive slow,
Were going too fast, were going too fast,
I couldnt stop if I wanted to try,
Now.
Brake, brake, brake,
But a moment just too late,
For gods sake,
This life I just cant waste.
As hearts race,
and the clock it stops in time,
Were going.
Down, down, down,
and the shouting screams they drown,
With no sound
But the shattered glass so loud,
I shout out,
'Cause I think were going under,
Under.
Brake,Brake,
This is more than I can take,
For gods sake,
Help me get out of this place.
I cant wait 'cause im cold and left alone,
I shout out but no one hears my calls.
Brake,Brake,
This is more than I can take,
For gods sake,
Help me get out of this place.
I cant wait 'cause im cold and left alone,
I shout out but no one hears me.
Brake,Brake,Brake
but a moment just to late,
For gods sake,
This life I just cant waste,

As hearts race,
and the clock it stops in time.
So help me.
Brake, brake, brake,
But a moment just to late,
For gods sake,
This life I just cant waste.
As hearts race,
and the clock it stops in time,
Were going.
Down, down, down,
and the shouting screams they drown,
With no sound
But the shattered glass so loud,
I shout out,
'Cause I think were going under,
were going.
Down, down, down,
and the shouting screams they drown,
With no sound
But the shattered glass so loud,
I shout out,
'Cause I think were going under,
Were going down.
