

Goapele, Butterflykisses

You came to me in a dream all the qualities I asked for in a man
just understand me
love me as you know me I'll let you know me well
I don't anticipate putting up a gate or shelter around my heart.
I intend to find the good in side promise the real you so pure so I can give you

<chorus>
Butterflykisses
and pleasure you can feel
I'll daze you, even bathe you
If you remain to keep it real

If you love me, love my mother;
Know you my father
hang with my brother.
Don't discriminate
or isolate me,
please let me be myself
I want to wear what I want to wear and say what's on my mind.
Please be kind
so I can give you

<chorus>
Butterflykisses
and pleasure you can feel
I'll daze you, even bathe you
If you remain to keep it real

Now that you're here
My visions clear.
I'm drenched in love.
Fly like a dove,
and walking through my life with you is a blessing oh so sweet-

<chorus>
Butterflykisses
and pleasure you can feel
I'll daze you, even bathe you
If you remain to keep it real
