

Gob Squad, Back Where I Belong

Yeah, I feel alright again.
My greatest fear have disappeared. I've overcome myself.
Yeah, I feel alright again.
I'd rather loose a million times just to win this time.

Damn it's so good to feel this way.

Cause now I'm back where I belong.
On and on and on.
And I don't care what's right or wrong.
On and on and on.
I've got no need to play along.
Back where I belong.

Yeah, I feel alright again.
So many things have changed and you seem better off this way.
Yeah, I feel alright again.
I don't really care. I've done my share and I've found my own way.

Damn it's so good to feel this way.

Cause now I'm back where I belong.
On and on and on.
And I don't care what's right or wrong.
On and on and on.
I've got no need to play along.
Back where I belong.

Sorrow!

Yeah now I'm back where I belong.
On and on and on.
And I don't care what's right or wrong.
On and on and on.
I've got no need to play along.
Back where I belong.
