

Gob Squad, Far Beyond Control

As I redefine love for this century of loneliness
I try hard to teach myself. I've got to pass the test.
Can I make it? Can I fake it? Can I overcome it all?
The biggest challenge is that I've got to write the perfect song.

You and me. Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.
Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.

A term so used and so abused and still so wonderful.
A million love songs could't save the world how hard they tried.
Can I make it? Can I fake it? Can I overcome it all?
I wrote this anthem for on person. Not so same them all.

You and me. Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.
Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.

You and me. Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.
Far beyond control.
We'll be breaking free cause we're far beyond control.
