We are laid to rest (Laid to rest)
No more of the lies (Of the lies)
Justice shall be served in my (In my eyes)
Eradicate the flow of society
Joined hands together in, in unity

Justice for all, as the saying goes
If you don't have money, it just ain't so

Decades of aggression towards a common source
The belief of freedom is murmured all at once
No choice for you or me
Free liberties are the promise yet to see
All are created equal as the saying goes
But if you look different its, not so

So many colours, races and creeds
But in the end, is liberty guaranteed?
Freedom of choice is up to you
Only if you follow through

So many races, colours and creeds
But in the end, is liberty guaranteed?
Freedom of choice is up to you
