

God Forbid, Broken Promise

Arcane events bring new vision
The claws you wield are visible
Echoes of souls you have taken
Cry out
Cry out in anguish

I uncloak my anger
My anger I have for you
Broken promises
Turned your back on me
Surrendered my own
My own judgment for you
Fell victim to your charm
Surrendered

Broken Promise
Turned your back on me
Broken Promise
Turned your back on me

Found in you no wrong
Would have traded life for you

Arcane events bring new vision
The claws you wield are visible
Souls cry out in anguish
Souls cry out in anguish

Would have traded life for you
Found in you no wrong
Found in you no wrong
Would have traded life for you

Broken Promise
Turned your back on me
Broken Promise
Turned your back on me

My skin now hardened by mistrust
Fell victim to your charm
Reality awoken by your hollow touch
Permanent scar now remains

Broken Promise
