

God Lives Underwater, No More Love

I can see
See the signs
I've been waiting here for you
But nothings getting through
I am gone
Up in the clouds
Praying I can turn,
Turn myself around
A year ago
I gave it a year
I hoped it wouldn't happen
Now its here
It took so long
I can't carry on
I know the reason that you left me
You had nothing more to give me
No more love
I can see
See your eyes
I can feel your heady stare
I run my fingers through my hair
I am high
As one can be
And I hope I don't come down,
I hate when I come down...
A month ago
I know you lied
Took my life into your hands
You just don't understand
How it feels
To be free
I know the reason that you left me
You had nothing more to give me
