

God Lives Underwater, Tortoise

I know what it takes to normalize
To slow me down and cut me down to size
I wanna get that feeling
To touch the ceiling
So send me reeling
I wanna know
How can I ease my mind
Ease my mind
Yeah I'm being taken away
I'm feeling that I'm finding my way
To something that's completely overwhelming me
I get tired of most everything
I anxiously await the gifts you bring
I spend my time thinking
And I hate thinking
To stop this thinking I want to know
How can I pass the time, pass the time
