

God's Bow, Beyond The Suns

I am covered with cold inflow
And I don't want to feel gravitation
Every cube of ice in my eye shows me my helplessness...

But I smile and I don't feel threatened
Suns covered me sweet abyss snatch me far...
But I smile I don't feel threatened
Oh, its so sweet to be...

Now I can feel this...This sweet rotation...
Madness of my senses...
Now I can feel this...And breathe this deeply in...
Its so simple now...

Even if the Earth disappears someday I will find her scent
But now let it snatch me up by this unknown power
And now I don't feel sorrow...

But I smile and I don't feel threatened
Suns covered me sweet abyss snatch me far...
But I smile I don't feel threatened
Oh, its so sweet to be beyond the suns...

I am daughter of Universe...
I am...Tonight...Forever...
