

God's Bow, Persephone

I hear your voice
Through a soft wind
Out of silent place its calling me
Maybe its a dream oblivion for my soul
Its seems so real...Seams so real...

For a short while
I'm so impressed...
This day...A last day...
For me on Mother Earth...

Last day...On Mother Earth...
For me...Its a last day...

I know Ill forget what is the light...
Your voice will take me underground...
Guided by destiny to the temple of my existence...
I'm going down
No footsteps on the ground...
This day... A last day...
For my tears on Mother Earth...

Last day...On Mother Earth...
For me and my tears...
