

Godhead, Feel

Never knew there was
An ordinary way
Never even seen the light of day
Holding back from what
I thought would bring me pain
Only now I see was wrong again
I'm forever lost in
Yhoughts within myself
Never giving time to anyone else

You take the only thing
I hold to myself dear
Now I see my future's crystal clear
Crossed the path of
What was undetermined lives
Killed the road to their salvation
Now I hear them in the darkness

As they cry I will Never feel elation
Rid the past of all the wrong that
I have made Or I'll take
These actions to the grave
Please forgive me all
I wanted was to live

Remorse is now the only thing
I can give Crossed the Path of what was undetermined
Lives Killed the road to their salvation
Now I hear them in the darkness
As they cry I will never feel relation
