

Godhead, Memorial

So much for you
I can't take this life
To be with you
Only pushes me, deeper down
Guilt pain and sorrow
Are what haunt me still
Waking tomorrow Will I feel the same?

Memories breaking me
Kill what I used to be
Wandering on I know misery
Alone in silence
All I had before, gone from me
Look to the past For any comforting
Happiness lasts
Only when your dead

Memories breaking me
Kill what I used to be
Can I feel again
Emotions that have brought me here
Lost somewhere in time
Never to return again

Memories breaking me
Kill what I used to be
Falling back on myself
For I know no one else
