

Godhead, No More

You search for me in places
Where you'll never find me
I've seen the empty faces
I leave them all behind me
Reaching out for something
That's beyond my grasp
Coming back with nothing
Hoping this won't last
The victim and the fall
I suffer through it all

There's nothing more
I have no more
I am a whore
There's nothing more

I find within your ruins
Only death and dust
Looking through your sewage
My bones begin to rust
I feel the need for something
That's beyond my grasp
Reaching out for nothing
Knowing this won't last
The victim and the fall
I suffer through it all

There's nothing more
I have no more
I am a whore
There's nothing more
