

Gods Of Blitz, Now

There was a time - there was a line there was a mountain in our hands and i felt fine committing crimes like six foot wings about to spread lifting our soul
but you dug a hole and had a funeral instead - how stupid

now everyone's infected now everyone's like you now everyone's injectin' or at least they say they do

now everyone's like you now they're runnin' and they're hidin' or at least they're tryin' to you set me free - you made me see you made me come to my own house and rescue thee but honestly - it's been a long time since we laughed about it all heading for the fall say are you waitin' for a start - get goin' now...
