

Gods Tower, Beyond Praying (Digipak Bonus)

Living Dying I just don't care
'cause me as you we'll go away in noone nothing we trust ever
'cause we're beyond praying forever

Black Blood of misery is flowing'on
Our skin, Our fate, Our hearts of stone
The debtors of pain and life's energy
They're marching from childhood to senility

No place for love for mercy you've known
Only depression and hatred prevails
We're beyond praying it's gone by
To tell the truth life is crime

So you can't tell the heroes and culprits
I know it I won't say I can
The debtors of pain and life's energy
They're marching from childhood to senility

Don't stop me I'll die on my own
T'will be one of my turns
Don't stop me just let me go home
Were the lonely star burns

So bless me to be on the run
So I'll fade away
So bless me I'll never be back
I'll never be back again

To escape is to die
To lose all the hopes
Say you die
To the Sky to the Earth
To the Friends you leave
Say goodbye
You're condemned to be here
Anything is like there
Say you die
To the Love to the Hate
To the Dreams you leave
Say goodbye
