

Godsmack, Bad Religion

Get back, Jack!

Can you feel I'm not like you anymore?
I can't see I can't breathe
See you quiver like the dogs on the streets
Looking down on as I beat you.

It's a bad religion from a broken nation
It's a contradiction
And I can't take it anymore, yeah.

Who's to say I won't like you anyway?
Take a deep breath I'm alive
Can you hear me? I'm alive inside of you
Agony creeps up behind you...

It's a bad religion
A bad religion
From a broken nation
A broken nation
It's a contradiction
And I can't take it any fuckin' way

It's a bad religion from a broken nation
It's a contradiction, yeah.

Can you feel it? I gotta live it with everyday.
I can't take the pressure, I'm goin' insane.
Now go away!
Go away!
