

Godsmack, Now Or Never

Can't remember my name, Can't remember at all
Finding you from past times, I think...
How did we ever fall?
Never knowing the answers, Calling myself names
Now is not the question for us
Will it ever be again
Why don't you just fly, fly to me?
How long will you wait for me? Never?
Now or never again
Feel me up inside you, How you quiver and shake
Can rake you back to my life?
Will you trust me again? Now or never...
I'll never let you down, So fly to me!
How long Can I wait...
Why don't you just fly, Fly to me?
How long will you wait for me? Never?
NOW OR NEVER AGAIN!
