

Godsmack, You And I

Captivating woman
Yeah you got me losing my mind
Shoot to kill, I lose my will Laying it all on the line

You and me,
We breathe inside a world where no one can breathe
Can't you see through painted skies it's always you and I

All I know deep down inside
This fine legged woman done saved my soul tonight
Taste the sin, I said lose or win
My god I've been waiting a long time
