

Godspeed You! Black Emperor, Static

...prepared in innocence to meet our king of glory and so we have this you have it in your secret windows and you're understanding to understand it and to bring it forth it takes minute detail it takes a holy life
it takes emotions
it takes dedication
it takes dedication
it takes a death

and there will be nothing left of you except the god-man, the god-woman the heavenly man, the heavenly woman the heavenly child there will be terror under this day of night there will be a song of jubilee waiting for your king there will be nothing you will be looking for in this world except for your god this is all a dream
a dream in death

and so i went through that window and the tower of hell and the great serpentines of the highest order and i went through that when i showed you chart #3 the question is asked and learned and someone who....
