

Gogmagog, I Will Be There

When you're hurt
Scared
Feel you can't go on

With this world
Closing in
All your hope is gone

Don't you worry
Don't care at all
Just you call me
I want you to know, want you to know

I will be there
I will be there
When you're standing in a world wishing you could escape it
And you pray to your god, tell him you just can't take it
Can't take anymore, then open your door
I will be there

When your faith
Lets you down
It cuts like a knife

And my own
Devil wind, yeah
It blows through your life

And those signs
When you
Feel you are in Hell

Think of me
If you're alone
Just you call me
I want you to know, want you to know

I will be there
I will be there
When the world is in chaos and you're scared of the night
I will be with you, I'm the dark from the light
When the rivers are rising and the tide it takes you down
Fear you're losing hold and there's nobody around
Don't you worry, I won't let you drown
I will be there

If you're lonely
Today
Tomorrow
Tonight

If you
Look around
But there
There's a hope in sight

And those times
When you
Feel you are in Hell

Don't you worry
Don't care at all
Just you call me
I want you to know, want you to know

I will be there
I will be there
When the world is in chaos and you're scared of the night
I will stay with you, I'm the dark from the light
When you're standing in a world wishing you could escape it
And you pray to your god, tell him that you just can't take it no more
No more
No more

And the rivers are rising and the tide it takes you down
And you fear you're losing hold and there's nobody around
Hey, don't you worry, I won't let you drown
I will be there

When you're scared of the night
I am the dark from light
My presence cloaks a knife
I will be there

My fire burns for all
Your back's against the wall
I only want your soul
I will be there

When you're scared of the night
My presence cloaks a knife
I will be there

My fire burns for all
