

Gogmagog, Living in a Fucking Time Warp

living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp

boring, it's so boring
boring, it's so boring

I've seen it all before, I've done it once or twice cooking in a heat wave, freezing in the ice there's nothing new for me, my jaded appetite is tired, tired

I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp

boring, it's so boring
boring, it's so fucking boring

the girls all look the same, the money's been and gone I've looked at every picture, heard every song it's all repeats for me, I don't belong

I'm tired, tired
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp

change the time, change the music, change your attitude enough for me to use it, use it, use it, use it

I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
I'm living in a fucking time warp
